THE LEGAL RANGE

THE PERFECT TOOLS TO MANAGE YOUR FINANCIAL RISKS EFFECTIVELY

Our legal records are here to help you assess the legal situation of a company.

To confirm an address, check a permit or approval of a contractor, access details of members of the board of directors, confirm the formal and informal links between companies.

A large number of legal professionals and government offices use our records to enrich and add to their own.

The list of acts

You can access the acts published by a company in the Annexes of the Official Journal without going through a record.

The legal record

Designed in collaboration with and for layers and bailiffs, it positions the company in its environment and historic development. It includes information from a number of official sources and provides online access to act published by a company in the annexes of the official journal.

"The complete administrative and legal history is just one click away"

The BCE record

This record is exclusively based on information from the Crossroad Bank of the Enterprises. And gives you the current legal situation of a company (including unique company number and commercial establishments).
